The PSI Alliance

requests the pleasure of your company at its

2011 Annual Conference: 'Moving Forward'

on Tuesday 28 June, 11am – 4pm

at The Residence Palace, Brussels

with the presentation of the PSI Alliance 5 Star award, for excellence in data provision

The PSI Alliance was established in order to encourage the public sector to maintain a trading environment that is fair and equitable, in particular in relation to the licensing and re-use of public sector information (PSI).

Our members are private sector companies and associations who are committed to working with PSI holders towards the maintenance and development of a vibrant, information-driven EU economy that ultimately works to the benefit of the public sector, private sector and the end consumer.

Speakers at the Annual Conference include Richard Swetenham, Head of Unit, Access to Information, European Commission; Denis Berthault, Director of Online Content, Lexis Nexis; Martin Peersmann, Director, GBKN; Marc de Vries, Editor, the ePSI Platform; Alberto Ortiz de Zárate, Director of Citizen Attention, Basque Government; Ed Parsons, Geospatial Technologist, Google; and Rolf Nordqvist, Chairman of the PSI Alliance.

The conference is free to PSI Alliance members and for non members is 95 Euros (plus VAT) before 28th May or 150 Euros (plus VAT) before 16th June. Any non-member who attends the conference and then joins the PSI Alliance will have their conference fee deducted from the cost of membership.
